Pro se covering letter for Kirkland submitted data on Douglas Saker's Celsius holdings Case No. 22-10964 (MG)

Hi Chambers

I would like to explain my withdrawals especially within the preference period 90 days from filing for Chapter 11. I had my reservations about Celsius as I am an experienced crypto investor and withdrew all of my money at one point. I came to the conclusion that Mashinsky couldn't be lying as he would surely go to prison for the rest of his life.

His frequently assertions in person on Twitter AMAs are publicly available prima facie evidence of fraudulent misrepresentation.

I was also hoping that a successful openly Israeli based crypto 'bank' would be good for Israels profile.

But taken with the recent behaviour of SBF stealing customer funds I would say the two of them have increased the risk of anti Semitism hugely.

So I returned the bulk of my money.

I can see no reason for retail clawbacks as being able to withdraw your money at any time you choose was a central much promoted part of Celsius's usual business practices.

The balance left on Celsius even at 40% of face value represents 95% of my life savings at 58 years old minus the small flat I bought with my last significant withdrawal from Celsius.

Regards Doug Saker
